

KIRK IN THE HILLS
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)

FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT
MARCH 6, 2022

"It is in that inner peace and stillness that things begin to happen, and it was in that peace and stillness that I began to hear God's voice."

— Eileen Caddy

Lent is my favorite season of the year. Not only is it a time when hints of spring reenergize me and make me feel more hopeful, but it is a season filled with deeply meaningful Holy Days and practices. Unlike at Christmastime, I feel much more encouraged to focus primarily on my relationship with God without the added stress of buying presents and attending functions. I'm sure many of you have asked yourself or someone else how they plan to participate in this season with the question, "what are you giving up for Lent?"

For many consecutive years growing up I gave up all sweets and junk food for Lent. This meant no Girl Scout cookies, no after-school snack, and often no birthday cake. It was challenging at first, but got easier and easier as the years went on. Eventually, I had to ask myself, "why am I giving this up for Lent? What is it doing for my faith?"

Lent is more than a glorified New Year's resolution. It is more than a faith-based weight-loss program or an opportunity to prove yourself to your friends. It is an opportunity for us as humans to recognize that we can't do life on our own, that we are truly dependent on the living God to fill us up and show us the path towards righteousness.

What is it for you that reminds you of your need for God?

Perhaps it is eating less chocolate. The desire to give in to the simple pleasures of the flesh can sometimes be enough to remind us of our weakness.

Perhaps it is a new spiritual practice. Practicing new ways to connect with God can often bring healing in ways that we can't find in our own day-to-day lives.

Perhaps it is limiting screen time to be more intentional about relationships, reminding us that we weren't created to do this life on our own.

Each of us is on a different journey with God right now. I hope that you will find a way to recognize your shortcomings and connect deeper with God this season as we make our way to the cross. For we have all come from dust and to dust we shall return. But God makes beautiful things out of dust.

Thou that hast given so much to me

Thou that hast given so much to me
Give one thing more, a grateful heart.

COMMUNION MUSIC

O Taste and See

Ralph Vaughan Williams

O taste and see how gracious the Lord is:
Blest is the man that trusteth in him.

At this Table

Allen Pote

In the singing, in the silence,	In the question, in the answer,
In the hands expectant, open,	In the moment of acceptance,
In the blessing, in the breaking,	In the heart's cry, in the healing,
In the Presence at this table,	In the circle of your people,
Jesus Christ, be the wine of grace:	Jesus Christ, be the wine of grace:
Jesus Christ, be the bread of peace.	Jesus Christ, be the bread of peace.

In the singing, in the silence...

Panis Angelicus

César Franck

Panis angelicus	May the Bread of Angels
Fit panis hominum;	Become bread for mankind;
Dat panis coelicus	The Bread of Heaven puts
Figuris terminum;	All foreshadowings to an end;
O res mirabilis!	Oh, thing miraculous!
Manducat dominum	The body of the Lord will nourish
Pauper, pauper,	the poor, the poor,
Servus et humilis.	The servile, and the humble.

Joslyn Phillips, soloist

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal God,
as you fed your people in the wilderness with unexpected food, so you feed us at this table with a simple loaf and cup.

Here you transform us, by the working of your wondrous love.
Now send us out to be Christ's body
in your broken and beautiful world to bear your good news of hope and joy for all. Amen.
