ANTHEM

Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit

arr. by William Dawson

Ev'ry time I feel the spirit,
Moving in my heart, I will pray;
Yes, Ev'ry time I feel the spirit,
Moving in my heart, I will pray;

Upon the mountain my Lord spoke,
Out of His mouth came fire and smoke;
Looked all around me, It looked so fine,
Till I asked my Lord if all was mine.

Jordan river is chilly an' cold,
It chills the body, but not the soul;
There ain't but one train upon this track,
It runs to heaven – an' right back.

Ev'ry time I feel the spirit...

Worship/Music Notes

On this day of Pentecost, we rejoice in the gift of the Holy Spirit among us and celebrate the birth of the Church. In the garden, we are led into a spirit of worship with the prelude Holy Spirit, a contemporary worship song by duo Bryan and Katie Torwalt of Jesus Culture Music. We echo this prayer of welcoming the Spirit among us, with our opening hymn Spirit of the Living God by Daniel Iverson, with additional lyrics by Kirk staff. As we enter into communion, you will hear There's a Sweet, Sweet Spirit by Doris Akers, a prolific gospel music composer of the mid-twentieth century. As the closing hymn, the soloist will again lead us in singing this text that reminds us of the Holy Spirit's real presence in our space that can transform and revive our hearts.

In the sanctuary, we open with Daniel Iverson's well-loved prayer Spirit of the Living God, and we will hear this repeated with additional lyrics during the choral prayer for illumination. We sing together our processional hymn Spirit Divine, Attend Our Prayers, inviting the Holy Spirit to "make this house your home." After the sermon, our time of thanksgiving and offering is opened with the hymn Breathe on Me, Breath of God, reminding us that the purpose of the spirit's power in our lives is to "love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do." The offertory anthem is the classic African American spiritual Ev'ry time I Feel the Spirit arranged by William Dawson, who for many years was the conductor of the Tuskegee Institute Choir, for which he composed many arrangements.

As we enter into communion, we will Thomas Tallis' If Ye Love Me, a setting of the text from John 14: 15-17 in which Jesus promises the comfort of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. The text of our final hymn, Loving Spirit, by Shirley Erena Murray, describes how the Holy Spirit is experienced in many relational aspects, and how we are "known and held and blessed" in the presence of our Comforter. We Now Go in Joy, as we are sent out into the world with the confidence and support of the Holy Spirit to share the love of Jesus, we are reminded that our calling is to love and care for our neighbors.

Stephen Ministers are available for personal, confidential prayer in Melrose Chapel (to the left, when facing forward in the sanctuary) immediately following service each Sunday. If you or someone you know is in need of prayer please contact Nancy Lau at 248-835-6691.

Tour Kirk in the Hills each Sunday! Those interested in a brief tour are asked to meet in the Baptistry, to the right of the Chancel, after the 11:00 a.m. service. See an usher for direction or further details.

Loose offerings collected today will support health care ministries. You can make note of that on your check, envelope, or online gift to show your support. For text to give information, please refer to the information card in the pew rack in front of you.

Join us for coffee and fellowship on the patio after the 9:00 a.m. worship service!

The flowers on the alter in the sanctuary are presented to the glory of God in loving memory of Betty and John Lifsey by their daughters, Diane and Tina, and their granddaughter, Maria.
